

CAREER GUIDANCE MOMENTS

This visual outlines key career learning moments during vocational education, including their objectives, example activities, and guiding questions for students and mentors.

What is your dream for the future?

Orientation on Next Steps after Graduation

- Information sessions with alumni and employers
- Speed dates with companies
- Mentoring conversations

What made this internship meaningful or special for you?

Internship reflection

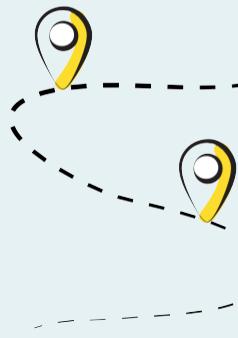

- Updating CV and portfolio
- Sharing internship experiences
- Mentoring conversations

What do you want to try, learn and demonstrate?

Learning during internship

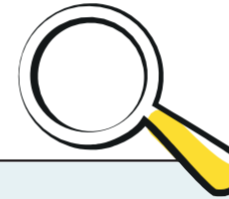

- Working and learning on the job
- Networking in the workplace.
- Receiving feedback
- Reflection conversations at internship and school

What are the advantages and disadvantages of working in this profession for you?

Career orientation & Introduction

- Provide clear and realistic career information to future students
- Introductory meetings
- Presentations at secondary schools
- Open days
- Excursions and guest lectures

How will you ensure that you can study successfully this year and continue your development?

Study advice

- Reflection on the first months of the programme
- Feedback conversations with teachers
- Mentoring sessions.

What is your next step and what do you want to achieve with it?

Choice moments

- Information sessions on electives and specialisations
- Career conversations
- Learning pathways workshops

What have you learned about what you are good at, and what does that mean for your next step?

Experiencing practice at school

- Practical assignments simulating real workplace situations
- Feedback sessions with peers and teachers
- Mentoring conversations

How will you contact the person who can help you, and what questions will you ask?

Preparing Internship

- Orientation through company visits or speed dates with regional organisations
- Job application and networking training
- Mentoring sessions

